Instructional Strategies

During the course of the Anthology unit, I give mini lessons on different electives selected by the students. Students are allowed to bibliography or sources as an elective, but I strongly encourage students in the two highest levels to select it. Standard citation measures will be demonstrated in mini lessons and students will complete a guided practice bibliography. I then proofread and make corrections on rough draft bibliographies before students are allowed to type a finished product.

Assessment:

Checklist/rubric and teacher observation are assessment tools.
